

The Holy Ghost keeps prompting me about the word treasure. I considered the treasure box, the treasure, as well as the Creator of the treasure. And if I could only choose one, I would keep the Creator of the treasure, as this would be God. And he can present treasure many ways; in a box, in the sea, or in a mans heart.

The Resurrection, Ascension and Pentecost are times to be treasured. As Jesus;

- rose with all power in his hands
- breathed the Holy Spirit on the believers
- he ascended to his rightful place with God

- and as the believers gathered in prayer the power of the Holy Ghost fell on them.

This to me is the GREAT TREASURE TRANSFERENCE!

Matthew 13:

44 The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field.

45 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls.

46 When he found one of great value, he went away and sold everything he had and bought it.

Read Jude (it's only 1 chapter):

Jude was the biological brother of Jesus, who became the servant of Jesus Christ.

He wrote to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called.

Reminding them:

- to earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

- he writes of how many fell from being Kingdom minded (lost treasure), by yielding to temptation. Except Michael the archangel defeated the devil, by calling on the name of the Lord, 'The Lord rebuke thee.'
- the Lord responds with ten thousands of his Saints to execute judgement calling out ungodliness.
- but the treasure entrusted to the Saints will help them persevere: "But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost."

When you combine Holy Faith with praying in the Holy Ghost this will bring you into the hidden treasure of God. And like the Archangel when you say 'The Lord Rebuke Thee' the devil and his imps will be defeated.

Matthew 6:

20 But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal.

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

CHALLENGE:

Remember, the GREATEST TREASURE you can obtain is thru PRAYER!

